ABSTRACT

The research work is composed of five chapters in which chapter one basically outlines the introduction part i.e. background of the study, problem statement aim of the study, specific objectives justification of the study, research questions, scope and limitations, assumptions, theoretical framework, and finally definition of major terms.

Chapters two contains literature review of which the information is obtained from books and internet. It entails statement of knowledge in the field and appropriate headlines, previous research, critical appreciation and ends with the summary.

Chapter three mainly focuses on the research methodology. In this chapter there is the location of the study, sampling, design and population is identified, sample size, sampling procedures, data collection procedures, finally data presentation and analysis.

Chapter four entails data analysis and presentation (i.e.) the findings for the organizations understudy. It contains descriptive analysis of the finding and data presentation.

Finally chapter five gives the summary of the findings, conclusion and recommendation based on the findings of the study. After conducting the research and evaluating all the facts collected, the author concluded that there is a direct relationship between learning organization and employee performance. The exercise influences productivity in the organization both positively and negatively.

1.3 Interpretative summary of previous literature

CHAPTER THREE

3.0 Research design and Methodology

3.1 Introduction

3.2 Design and local of the study

3.3 Target Population and sampling strategy

3.4 Research instrument and data collection

3.5 Data representation and analysis

2.2 Review of previously related literature	9
2.2.1 Learning and development	10
2.2.3 Leadership	12
2.2.4 Leadership learning organization	12
2.3 Interpretative summary of previous literature	15
CHAPTER THREE
3.0 Research design and Methodology	16
3.1 Introduction	16
3.2 Design and local of the study	16
3.3 Target Population and sampling strategy	17
3.4 Research instrument and data collection	17
3.5 Data representation and analysis	18

CHAPTER FOUR

4.0 Data analysis and presentation	23
4.1 Finds to the study	24
4.2 Data presentation	25
4.3 Interpretation of analyzed data	26

CHAPTER FIVE

5.0 Summary, conclusions and data recommendations	27
5.1 Summary of findings	27
5.2 Conclusions	28
5.3 Recommendations	29
